

SECOND CALL FOR PAPERS

UD Workshop on Stress and Accent

November 29 - December 1, 2012

SUBMISSION DEADLINE EXTENDED UNTIL AUGUST 24, 2012.

Purpose and Background

The aim of this workshop is to bring together researchers and scholars interested in the nature of stress and accent in the world's languages. In addition to an exciting set of invited talks by leading scholars, we are soliciting papers and posters that address any aspect of stress and accent. Abstracts should be submitted in pdf format via the EasyAbs system at the following URL:

<http://linguistlist.org/confcustom/StressAccent12>

Abstracts can be submitted between July 1, 2012 and August 3, 2012. Authors should remove identifying information from the abstract. Abstracts should be at most 1 page in length with at most an additional page for examples, references, diagrams, etc.

This workshop is a follow-up conference to the workshops on Stress and Accent in 2010 and 2011 at the University of Connecticut, and is supported by grant no. 1123692 from the National Science Foundation.

Invited Speakers

- Elan Dresher (University of Toronto)
- Rob Goedemans (Leiden University)
- Matt Gordon (University of California, Santa Barbara)
- Harry van der Hulst (University of Connecticut)
- Brett Hyde (Washington University)
- Gaja Jarosz (Yale University)
- Anthi Revithiadou (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)
- Jason Riggle (University of Chicago)
- Irene Vogel (University of Delaware)
- Kie Zuraw (University of California, Los Angeles)

Important Dates

- Submission Deadline: ~~August 3, 2012~~ August 24, 2012
- Paper/poster Notifications: ~~August 17, 2012~~ September 10, 2012

Contact

Please direct questions regarding the conference to stress-accent-workshop-2012@udel.edu.